

Celebrating Singapore's Unknown Heroes

*A Showcase Of The 15
Shorts Film Initiative*

Shelter by Sean Ng

Abandoned by his father, Aaron, a 17-year-old boy, is left in debt and homeless, together with his mother and younger sister. Aaron's world is shaken after he meets a suspicious man who claims to want to help his family.

Director's Note by Sean Ng

“

In a fast moving society like Singapore, most of us have the instinct to distrust strangers; this film is a story of hope —a hope that we often take for granted or ignore in the hustle of our daily lives.

”

In dedication to New Hope Community Services

New Hope Community Services provides a temporary shelter to homeless men and families in Singapore.

Since 2003, New Hope has helped more than 900 displaced families and 1000 displaced individuals find their feet again.

Donate to:

<http://bit.ly/givingsg-homeless>

Connect with us on social media: #15shorts

Like our page 15 Shorts

Follow @15shorts

