

Celebrating Singapore's Unknown Heroes

*A Showcase Of The 15
Shorts Film Initiative*

Sister by Chai Yee Wei

Roman Catholic nun Sister Gerard Fernandez became a death row counsellor after Catherine Tan was sentenced to hang. Catherine Tan was one of the two holy wives of the infamous Adrian Lim - a spirit medium whose outrageous story of sex, rituals and rites shocked the entire nation.

Sister Gerard visited and counseled Catherine every step of the way - until Catherine walked to the gallows in her final moments.

Director's Note by Chai Yee Wei

“ Most know the Adrian Lim story, but from Adrian Lim's perspective and his angle...

Everyone has neglected the perspective of the other two women, also known as his 'holy wives'.

This is actually Sister Gerard's superhero film, how she started prison counselling for death row inmates and this is the first case.

In dedication to Seventy Times Seven

Seventy Times Seven (70x7) is an initiative within Prison Fellowship Singapore that promotes restorative justice. It is the non-religious arm of PFS. Our services and programmes serve the community of families and individuals in the Singapore prison system and seek to reconcile love and justice.
